

PRAYmissions

Encompass World Partners

Internships provide unique opportunities to experience cultures different from your own as you determine if God is calling you to long-term cross-cultural ministry. In this video, Encompass interns Ana and Cana share their experiences from their Atlanta internship this spring. Pray that God stirs in the hearts of people to take the first step to pursuing missions. Pray that He will send more workers to serve the least reached.

Ireland is a tough place to reach with the gospel because the term “religion” conjures up images of institutional irrelevance and abuse. Even so, Roy and Holly celebrate the recent success of their online Bible discovery series, as a few newcomers expressed curiosity about Jesus. Roy and Holly also facilitated an online series on art and faith where they invited artists to discuss faith and mission in Ireland. Pray for those who are encountering the gospel for the first time. Pray for Holly as she enters her fourth year of college—she hopes to be back on campus. Pray for their church as it seeks to live out the gospel in Dublin.

Eddy* has started a company in Central Asia to help Christians start and develop their own businesses. Christians here face persecution personally and professionally, and the nation suffers from systemic poverty. Eddy wants people to be able to support themselves. So far, he has helped local believers launch several businesses, and more are in process. Pray for Christians in Central Asia who face challenges because of their faith and their country’s infrastructure. Pray for Eddy and his company as he continues to help them.

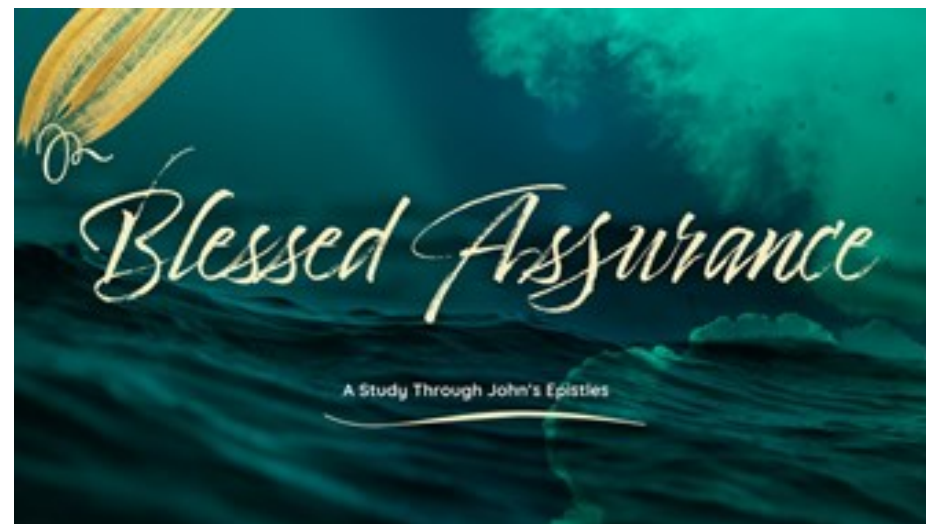

Since March of 2020, three church plants in Chad have cared for about 4,500 refugees from the Central African Republic. These churches are the only ones providing relief supplies, food, and emotional first aid. The region’s governor has expressed thanks but offered no help.

See the Welcome Center bulletin board for the full missionary prayer letters.
