

PRAYmissions

Barlows in Birmingham

Local Gathering—With the “summer slowdown,” attendance has been down at Frankley Grace—but the quality of fellowship and spiritual growth is high, ever since we started meeting in person. We still long to see more from the community join us, so pray that our efforts be more visible will bear fruit. Pray, too, as we plan some new initiatives for August.

Disciple-Making—MaryAnn just returned from ten days with some of our godchildren; we praise God for lots of God-shaped conversations and discipleship. And we’re praying that the “summer slowdown” will provide many more opportunities to be living and verbal witnesses to the Goldwing club, our neighborhood, more godchildren, and the Frankley community. Please partner with us in prayer!

Training and Coaching—We praise God for real progress in creating a full coach training path in French for Christian leaders. The next training module, Establishing the Coaching Relationship, is taking shape to be offered online starting in September. Pray as materials are translated and that many of those who attended the first workshops will sign up!

Family Front—As you read this, we’ll be packing for a few days of vacation on the Isle of Wight. And the rest of the month will be filled with hosting people, Goldwing events, and the buildup to the arrivals of two grand-babies. (We may have time to send an update, but if not you’ll know why!)

See the Welcome Center bulletin board for the full missionary prayer letters.
