

PRAYmissions

Barlows in Birmingham

Local Gathering: We've seen several new folks attend our Sunday worship gatherings, and we feel it is a direct result of being more visible as we meet at "Number 4" and from the outreach initiatives. Pray with us they will continue attending and find new life, as we study the Gospel of John together. (This past Sunday focused on Bible stories for children and their families.)

Disciple Making: The past few weeks have provided MANY opportunities to make disciples in formal and less formal ways. We invested time with several godchildren (our French godson is in the photo with Tom at Coughton Court), and conversations went deep with the motorcycle club* and at "Beautiful" and other outreach events. Pray with us that the seed sown will produce spiritual fruit! (* The photo in the header is us at Sherwood Forest with the motorcycle club, but we didn't see Robin Hood ... ;-)

Training and Coaching: Due to vacations of key decision-makers in France and the US, we're still formalizing the last details of this training. Pray that all the details will come together, so we can offer the first module in October. The translation of The COACH Model book into French is progressing well, too!

Family Front: Our second grandchild is here! Arlen Benjamin Stichter was born on 25 August, weighing 7 lbs, 4 oz and measuring 20 inches. Congrats to Anne and Adam! Thanks to Aunt Niki for all her help before and after the delivery. We're praying lots for them as they recover from colds and the delivery, and as they adjust to having two children.

See the Welcome Center bulletin board for the full missionary prayer letters.
