

PRAYmissions

Barlows in Birmingham

Passing the Baton and Finishing Well

We're encouraged and praise God, as we see several areas of leadership transferred to others, including the men's study led by Scott, shared leadership of the Frankley Grace home groups, some volunteering to help with Craft & Cuppa and Messy Church. Please keep praying, as it is much more delicate to transfer discipleship partnerships and some of the unseen leadership roles.

Reaching Out and Local Church

Craft & Cuppa is going well this autumn, with several good conversations. Katelyn, who is temporarily in Birmingham, has been a huge help the past few weeks! Pray for Messy Church today (right now as some of you read this) at Holly Hill School; the team is working well together and seeking to build on the momentum from the Messy Getaway in August. And please pray for a neighbor, G, with whom MaryAnn shared the Gospel a few days ago.

Training and Coaching

Thanks for those who prayed us through the decision about a training course in cross-cultural intelligence (CQ) with Hofstede Insights; Tom will attend a 4-day in-person certification in early October. Pray also as several coach training offers are being discussed with various groups, to train more Christian Leaders.

Family Front

The death of Queen Elizabeth II and the accession of King Charles III is affecting our family in various ways: Megane was called on to a plan to lead a Service of Remembrance at her school; there is a sense of loss for several in our family; and so much media coverage is revealing aspects of faith and devotion in the Royal Family, which lead to lots of conversations.

See the Welcome Center bulletin board for the full missionary prayer letters.
