

PRAYmissions

Mike and Kris Reed—Awana

“Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord” 1 Corinthians 15:58. Our ministry work certainly has been unique this season. We are incredibly thankful for faithful ministry workers who so what they can, when they can, how they can, for whom they can, because they can. They are doing something!

We held our first-ever virtual Awana ministry conference (VAMC) last Saturday. God showed favor upon us with technology holding up through the general session and eleven different Zoom rooms used during each of the three breakout sessions. Approximately 247 registered, representing over 136 churches in attendance. One leader was so excited about the breakout sessions that she signed up for the remaining five VAMCs offered across the country to attend more breakout sessions! Another person said, “so many resources available to help us lead/organize/etc...I feel less “alone” in my new role as director of children’s ministry.” We are in this together!

The words “thank you” do not seem adequate for how much we value your partnership with our ministry. Your prayers and gifts allow training and equipping resources like our virtual Awana ministry conference possible. Please join us in praying for the 349 churches in our area and their Awana leaders as they minister to the children and youth in their communities. It is our prayer that the gospel message continue to go forth.

Encompass World Partners

Adriana Fike—Central Asia

Adriana has completed her final interviews. We are working together on the final step in her application process. Once this is complete, she can begin the orientation process as well as partner development coaching. Please pray for Adriana as she takes this important next step on her journey into long-term cross cultural ministry.

Abby Horvat—Japan

Abby appreciates your prayer as she seeks clarity regarding God’s plans for her. Please pray for us as we continue to disciple Abby and pray with her about her next steps.

See the Welcome Center bulletin board for the full missionary prayer letters.
